

COLLEGE--FINAL EXAMS

The exam for each class is shown on the Populi Calendar for that class.

Reminders from the Academic Guide

(<http://prairie.edu/ckfinder/userfiles/files/academic-guide.pdf>):

- You may apply to take exams at a conflict exam time only if you have two exams at the same time or more than two exams on the same day. The conflict time comes after the last regularly-scheduled exams.
- You may apply to reschedule other exams only for these circumstances: a medical or psychological emergency; a family member's death, illness, or injury; an immediate family member's wedding. Exams are not rescheduled for students' travel plans.
- Make application for conflict exams or exam rescheduling at the Registrar's Office.
- Permission is granted at the discretion of the Registrar after consultation with the course instructor. You will be charged a $100 administrative fee.

NOTE: The time of specific exams within the exam schedule is subject to change. You should be prepared to stay on campus through the last exam period.
